PROPHETS

After two days he will devour us,
on the third day he will raise us up,
that we may live before him.

Let us know; let us press on to know the LORD,
his going out is sure as the dawn,
he will come to us as the showers,
as the spring rains that water the earth.

What shall I do with you, O Ephraim?
What shall I do with you, O Judah?
Your love is like a morning cloud,
like the dew that goes early away.

Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets;
I have slain them by the words of my mouth,

and my judgment goes forth
For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than offerings.

But like Adam they transgressed,
there they dealt faithlessly with me.

Gilgad is a city of evildoers,
tracked with blood.

As robbers lie in wait for a man,
so the priests band together;
they murder on the way to Shechem,
they commit villainy.

but they will not find him,
he has withdrawn from them.
They have dealt faithlessly with the LORD
for they have borne alien children.
Now the new moon shall devour them with their fields.

Blow the horn in Gibeon,
the trumpet in Ramah,
Sound the alarm at Beth-aven,
we follow you, O Benjamin!

Ephraim shall become a desolation
in the day of punishment,
among the tribes of Israel.

I will be to Ephraim
as a lion to the house of Judah.
I will oppress them in judgment,
because he was determined to go after filth.
But I am like a moth to Ephraim,
and like dry rot to the house of Judah.

When I am sick,
and his wound
then Ephraim
and
But he is or he
For I will
and like a young lion to the house of Judah,
I, even I, will tear and go away;
I will carry off, and no one shall rescue.

Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples;
Ephraim is a cake not turned.

Strangers devour his strength,
and he knows it not;
gray hairs are sprinkled upon him,
and he knows it not.

The pride of Israel testifies to his face,
yet they do not return to the LORD their God
for all this:

like a dove,
without sense,
Egypt, going to Assyria,
will spread over them my net;
I will bring them down like birds of the
heavens;

I will discipline them according to the reproof
made to their congregation
to them; for they have strayed from me!
I will speak to them; for they have rebelled against me!

But they speak lies against me,
yet they do not return to me from the heart.

but they wall upon their beds;
for grain and wine they gash themselves,
they rebel against me.

Although I trained and strengthened their arms;

yet they devise evil against me.

They return, but not upward;
they are like a treacherous bow;
their princes shall fall by the sword.

HEBREWS 11:6

⁶ And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.
